2017-2018 Notarized Statement of Identity and Educational Purpose

Your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) was selected for review in a process called "Verification." In this process, Northpoint will be comparing information from your FAFSA with this document. According to Title IV regulations, this information is required before awarding Federal aid. If there are differences between your application information and this document, Northpoint Bible College may send electronic corrections to have your information reprocessed. Please complete this process within 30 days so your financial aid will not be delayed.
