

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

Northpoint Bible College exists to teach and train students for excellent Pentecostal ministry, in fulfillment of the Great Commission.

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

ASSOCIATE IN ARTS IN BIBLE AND THEOLOGY; SPECIALIZED MINISTRY; ASSEMBLIES OF GOD CREDENTIALING PREPARATION

At the conclusion of this program, the student should be able to:

1. Communicate a biblical worldview. (Related to values Scripture and Academics)
2. Communicate the gospel in a variety of settings. (Related to values Ministry and Academics)
3. Be equipped to identify the personal needs of others so that he/she will be able to apply the Word of God to those needs in ministry situations, such as preaching, teaching, and witnessing. (Related to values Ministry, Community, and Service)
4. Apply himself/herself to spiritual disciplines, such as prayer, Scripture, fasting and other forms of discipline. (Related to values Scripture and Character)
5. Have an understanding of Pentecostal theology. (Related to value Pentecostal)
6. Exemplify an understanding of biblical principles as they relate to the Christian life and experience. (Related to values Scripture, Calling, Character, Ministry, Academics, Pentecostal, Community, and Service)
7. Demonstrate a general understanding of the Bible and Christian doctrine. (Related to value Scripture)
8. Define his/her role within the Church or para-church context. (Related to value Calling, Ministry, Community, and Service)
9. Be prepared to pursue further academic training. (Related to value Academics)
10. Be more socially aware of his/her responsibility and role within our society and the Church. (Related to values Calling, Character, Ministry, Community, and Service)

BACHELOR OF ARTS IN BIBLICAL STUDIES

At the conclusion of the Bachelor of Arts program, the student should be able to:

1. To enable the student to articulate a biblical worldview and confront non-biblical religious and philosophical thinking and expression. (Related to values Scripture and Academics)
2. To help the student communicate the Gospel in a variety of ministry settings. (Related to values Ministry and Academics)
3. To help the student understand the complexity of our contemporary pluralistic world, and to prepare him/her for future ministry in this context. (Related to values Ministry and Academics)
4. To equip the student to be able to assess the personal needs of others so that he/she will be able to competently apply the Word of God to those needs in ministry situations, such as preaching, teaching, counseling, and witnessing. (Related to values Scripture, Ministry, Community, and Service)

5. To train the student to apply himself/herself to prayer, to the Word, and to the Church. (Related to values Scripture, Character, Community, and Service)
6. To instruct the student in methods of caring for the Church, instructing the Church, and evangelizing for the Church. (Related to values Calling, Ministry, Community, and Service)
7. To provide the student with an understanding of the historical and contemporary tenets and movements of theology. (Related to values Scripture and Pentecostal)
8. To encourage the student to be able to document, support, and present his/her own system of theology. (Related to values Scripture, Academics, and Pentecostal)
9. To prepare the student to exemplify an understanding of biblical principles as they relate to Christian life and experience. (Related to values Scripture, Calling, Character, Ministry, Academics, Pentecostal, Community, and Service)
10. To lead the student to demonstrate a comprehensive knowledge of the Bible and understanding of Christian doctrine. (Related to values Scripture and Academics)
11. To help the student to be able to pursue graduate training, if desired, on the basis of the undergraduate education he/she receives at Northpoint Bible College. (Related to values Calling and Academics)